1 Tuition Fees Liability

Fees cover all tuition costs, student guides, student ID card, readings books and noho marae.

Fees are payable in full by the due date on the invoice and no refund will be given unless you have withdrawn formally in writing within 21 days of the beginning of the semester ('the refund period') regardless of whether your enrolment documentation has been submitted. Attendance at class and / or submission of work is deemed to be an acceptance of your offer of enrolment.

If you withdraw formally in writing from your programme within the refund period you may receive a refund of any fees paid less the withdrawal fee. The withdrawal fee is 10% of fees paid or payable.

If you do not withdraw formally in writing within the refund period, you are liable to pay your fees, even if you do not submit any work or attend class.

If you withdraw formally in writing within the refund period and have not yet paid your fees you are still liable for the withdrawal fee.

If your fees were to be paid by way of a student loan and you cancel your loan, you must also withdraw formally in writing with NZCA as you remain liable for any applicable fees.

Unpaid fees will be subject to debt collection procedures including referral to a debt collection agency.

Additional expenses

You can expect to pay up to $1,000 for textbooks, course materials and minor incidentals during your three year programme.

Some modules require students to make or provide teaching resources and materials, and this will be at your own expense. You will be advised of these at the beginning of modules.

There may also be a small koha for noho marae that you will be asked to contribute.

A textbook list is issued with your enrolment information. Please refer to this for detailed costs.

2 Payment After Due Date

Fees paid after the due date increase by the maximum of 10% of the outstanding balance or $100.

3 Recognition of Prior Learning

No charge before 1 July 2011
